The Madrid Bar Association receives the visit of a delegation of lawyers from the Lawyers Association of Zhejiang.

The ICAM President, José María Alonso, accompanied by the Director of the Department of International Relations, Cristina Weissenberg, yesterday received a delegation of Chinese lawyers interested in learning, from an institutional point of view, regarding the Spanish legal system, the bar membership and the legal profession in our country overall.

The members of the International Relations Department of ICAM, Víctor Gamero and Constance Lubet also attended the meeting.
On the side of the delegation, the members present were: Li Jianye, Deputy General Director of the Wenzhou Department of Justice; Tan Guohua, Vice-president of the Zhejiang Lawyers Association; Cui Haiyan, Director of the Foreign Legal Services Committee of the Zhejiang Lawyers Association; Wang Lixin, Managing Partner at Zhejiang Brighteous Law Firm and Guo Fang, Partner at Zhejiang T & C Law Firm.

The Asian delegation, headed by Zhu Xiaoye, Deputy Director of the Provincial Department of Justice in Zhejiang, was eager to know more about the ICAM day-to-day functioning and showed special interest concerning ICAM's international relations with Asian professional associations since the delegation currently seeks to explore the possibilities of establishing branches of Chinese law firms in Spain.

The meeting served to foster and strengthen the ICAM´s relations with the Zhejiang Lawyers Association and to begin implementing a permanent communication channel with the Chinese legal profession that allows to guarantee high quality and efficient legal services among lawyers of both bar association, collaboration closely in line with the ongoing collaborative frame already started with other Asian institutional representatives who have visited the ICAM on previous occasions.
